SITUATION SUMMARY

Tropical Storm Simon

As of 0500 hours PDT 10/07/14: Tropical Storm Simon was located approximately 115 miles west southwest of Punta Eugenia Mexico. Simon is moving toward the north-northeast near 7 mph and this motion is expected to continue during the next 24 to 36 hours. Simon is forecast to become a remnant low later today or Wednesday.

Potential Hazards Affecting Land in Mexico:

Tropical Storm Simon is expected to produce storm total rainfall amounts of 3 to 6 inches with isolated amounts around 9 inches over the next several days across central and northern portions of the Baja California Peninsula and the State of Sonora in northwestern Mexico.

Potential Hazards Affecting Land in California:

High clouds from Tropical Storm Simon are already making their way into southern California. Simon, will continue to track northeast across Baja, bringing potential thunderstorms and rainfall to the mountains and deserts of San Diego and Riverside Counties and the Lower Colorado River Valley today and Wednesday. A south-southeast swell from Simon will continue to bring high surf and dangerous rip currents to Southern California beaches through Tuesday. Surf will likely peak through this morning, then start to subside.

Cal OES Coastal Region – Planned Event and Major Exercise

Monday, 10/06/14 through Tuesday 10/14/14, San Francisco Center for Humanitarian Disaster Response (SFCHADR), announces the return of Fleet Week to San Francisco. This year's program will feature several exercises, which include the delivery and demonstration of a USMC Shock Trauma Platoon at General Hospital, the 'Fifth Annual Senior Leaders' Seminar, the return of the popular 'K9 Heroes Program', and the exchange of best practices with SFFD's Urban Search and Rescue team. Military medical and air teams will demonstrate the military's capability to enhance overall patient care capabilities within the city following a large-scale disaster (by invitation only). Further San Francisco Fleet Week Information:

<http://www.fleetweek.us/>

Event Exercise Schedule:

Tuesday, Oct. 7 - K9 Heroes "Bark in the Park": Dogs training in Urban Search and Rescue, bomb and drug detection, and treating veterans with posttraumatic stress will present a live demonstration and program for the general public. (Open to the public)

Wednesday, Oct. 8 – Medical Peer to Peer Exchange Seminar: Seminar will focus on advanced battlefield surgical capabilities, static displays, recent case studies, and technological innovations. (By invitation only)

Wednesday, Oct. 8 – Senior Leaders Seminar Day 1: Overview of DSCA by Defense Coordinating Officer Colonel Butts. Keynote by Maritime Administration Associate Administrator for Strategic Sealift, Mr. Kevin Tokarski. (By invitation only)

Thursday, Oct. 9 – Senior Leaders Seminar: Day 2 – Regional Plans and Exercises: This seminar brings together key leaders from Federal, State and Local government agencies, first responders, national military leader, as well as political and diplomatic leader to be briefed on regional plans and lessons learned from 2013 and 2014 regional exercises. Topic based discussion groups will focus on gaps from recent exercise in order to identify future exercise topics and inputs to regional planning. (By invitation only)

Thursday, Oct. 9 – Interoperable Training with San Francisco Fire Department (SFFD): EMS Ride-along: USMC military medical personnel will have the opportunity to ride-along with SFFD ambulance crews to share best practices. (By invitation only)

Thursday, Oct. 9 – Interoperable Training with USN: Shipboard Firefighting: SFFD personnel will observe the shipboard firefighting drill by the USN. (By invitation only)

Friday, Oct. 10 – Interoperable Training with the SFFD: Urban Search and Rescue: The SFFD will provide tactical US&R training to the military.

Saturday and Sunday Oct. 11 through 12 – Humanitarian Assistance Village (HAV): The Marina Green will host the "HAV Disaster Cycle – From Preparedness to Response". This event will allow the public to experience the resources that could be available after a disaster. Participating agencies will include the USMC, USN, USCG, CNG, San Francisco Emergency Management, SFFD, SFPD, SF PUC, PG&E, the Salvation Army and American Red Cross.

WEATHER

WEATHER SYNOPSIS BY REGION:

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA AND CENTRAL COASTAL AREAS:

Eureka Weather:

Dry and mild conditions will persist for the next several days with some cooling through midweek as a strong ridge of high pressure gradually shifts east. It will be clear in most areas except for clouds along the immediate coast.

San Francisco Weather:

Dry weather conditions will persist with temperatures cooling to near seasonal averages through the latter half of the week. A brief return to warmer conditions can be expected for the upcoming weekend as high pressure rebuilds over the West Coast. A cooler Pacific system will then impact the region early next week.

CENTRAL CALIFORNIA AND SOUTHERN SAN JOAQUIN VALLEY

Sacramento Weather:

Dry and warm weather expected for interior northern California this week under strong high pressure.

Hanford Weather:

Mostly clear skies and above average temperatures as strong high pressure continues to dominate the region. A slight cooling trend is expected by midweek as the high weakens.

WEATHER

WEATHER SYNOPSIS BY REGION:

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA:

Los Angeles Weather:

High pressure over the western United States will weaken through midweek resulting in slightly cooler temperatures mainly over coastal areas, though still above normal. Overnight low clouds and fog along with dense fog is possible in some coastal locations. High pressure returns to the area by the weekend for above normal temperatures and an absence of overnight low clouds and fog.

Extreme Southwestern California Including Orange, San Diego, Western Riverside and Southwestern San Bernardino Counties:

Moisture from weakening Tropical Storm Simon will spread northward into far southern and eastern portions of southern California through tonight, then move east Wednesday night. This will bring a chance of showers into Wednesday afternoon with a slight chance of thunderstorms each afternoon through early evening. Drying and slight cooling will follow for coastal areas on Thursday and Friday, followed by warming and lower inland humidities for the weekend through early next week.

Southeast California Weather:

Chances of showers along with isolated thunderstorms remain in the forecast for the region starting Tuesday night through much of Wednesday with the potential for heavy rain. Moisture will gradually decrease starting Thursday with skies clearing from west to east. Below normal temperatures through the end of this week will inch back toward seasonal normal for this weekend.
